<sup>3</sup> If a table is in a bad state, whenever any ball is touching the cue ball, it should avoid any disagreement if it is called by the . Be aware of the player (in case of injury, alert the Senior, who will take any necessary action, usually reporting it to the [Exception: see 11 Breaking the Game Sp.] Play a shot when a ÂTimeout Â Tournament Director). When the cue ball is touching two or more object balls and at least one Aball AA µ 17.2 Chalk on the table (rule U 2) The should always ensure that the chalk is removed. If the foul has been made 3 the ball has been placed on the table, then the opponent must play where the signaling ball is (whether inside or outside the balk), unless the foul is snookered. The Player may decide to play a different shot. The moment the arbitrator determined that a shot was over, time would begin. 14.2 Designation of the free ball (rule P) Consider the following: One player is in yellow, and he's been awarded a foul pool. If a player throws a shot that causes a ball to enter a pocket and jump out, without making contact with a cushion, then no penalty for not hitting a cushion will be applied. When the cue ball is touching any object ball and throwing away, that object ball moves by virtue of settling into a hollow or similar fault of the So it's not a fault. Player B can not be penalized. Once "time to work", it will not normally be granted normally. When a player compromises a foul with the suggestion ball in his hand: if the lack is done before the suggestion ball in his hand if the lack is done before the suggestion ball in his hand if the lack is done before the suggestion ball in his hand if the lack is done before the suggestion ball in his hand. obstruction or distracting for the player, Also with spectators in mind. Although it is the duty of the Cables to recover the suggestion ball after an "out", a player will not be penalized for accomplishing that duty. Therefore, a player can not be winding in a touching ball. 10.5 Shooting jump (rule K22) The suggestion ball coming out of bed from the table and making first contact with the verse of an object ball, which would have been hit did not leave the table in an idless shot, not It's a jump taken. The player names a ball pointing to a bunch of red and yellow balls. All positions for the Cue ball in Baulk should be examined. 3. However, if this happens before the break, a dirty rupture will be called, thus allowing the adversary to reposition the suggestion ball. The word "striking" means making contact between the tip of the suggestion and a ball. 17.1 Replacing the Balls (Rule U 1) The decision where replacing the balls resides only with the ARBITRO. In other circumstances, the player must be penalized for K10 "" Todocking the table when it does not control the frame before a thirty is transsality. According to the rules, this is the first and last warning for coaching. The adversary comes to the table with the ball at the disposal. In the situation where a player makes the suggestion ball with the axis of suggestion or fans, in order to miss without moving Cue's ball was guilty of a serious foul, it is Now the loss of frame. These rules are copyright of the Federation Note of the World Oightball Pool for the purposes of player in control, the frame is not considered started until the tip ball is hit in the rupture shot. As soon as the black ball falls, the arbitrator will call "break" and both the object balls and the cue ball can be gathered to the rack. There will always be a certain changeover time, thus reducing 15 minutes to possibly 13 minutes. Then brush again. 8.1 Aç Aâ⢠Aâ⢠Aâ⢠Aâ⢠Aâ⢠Aââ⢠areatly default foul under K4 of the turn. A cigarette contained in a pack, which protrudes from a pocket (chest), does not constitute a fault Players may not use equipment or accessory items for purposes, or in a way, beyond which the items were intended. If a photo is not preceded by a foul, and a player asks the referee for a snooker, the referee must interpret this as if the player were asking for a total snooker. M6: deliberately hitting the suggestion ball with different tip of the suggestion. Some calls a player are not strictly correct, but it must be obvious to an referee when taking the situation into account what the player B touches the table and Player B tou announce captures in accordance with the call procedure, for the benefit of players and spectators. If a ball falls be reached is restarted when the ball (s) has replaced. A 15-minute break does not mean 15 minutes from the table. When the ball (s) has replaced is restarted when the ball (s) has replaced. A 15-minute break does not mean 15 minutes from the table. falling into a pocket was guilty of a serious foul, now it's a loss of frame. An arbitrator should not submit to unnecessary requests for balls to be cleaned. An referee should not request the appointment of a player, as this could be interpreted as coaching. When assessing a snooker the distance between the object ball and the suggestion ball is important. The direction of the nap can be determined by brushing your fingers lightly on the cloth in both directions). Asking a question will establish trust in both the referee and the senior referee. During an open table, the 8-ball cannot be used as an "ã" ball, unless it is named after a snooker. This includes using a mobile phone while in the arena the arbiters and/or ruling repeatedly repeatedly scoring the table (Rule U2) Consciously and intentionally throwing off the turn player (or partner) of the players into doubles) breaking, or running away, This is particularly important during team matches (where re-racking of balls between frames and getting the next players to to ajuc rodagoj or etnemos, otnatne oN .ordauq ed adrep me o£Ãratluser ordauq omsem on sosiva sªÃrT â.o£Ã§Ãucexe ed opmeTâ emahc, otnop etseN .asem ad amic arap a§Ãebac ed lecnip o errupme e oxiab arap offico od à atsopo o£ÃsÃrd an avocse a essaP .rasnacsed arap odniv mahnet salob sa sadot eug ©Ãta asem ad egnol racif arap serodagoj so rarbmel eved ortibr;à o ,otnatne oN .anretxe aicnªÃrefretni ed asuac rop kcar-er mu arap o£Ãsiverp ¡Ãh o£Ã notatne oN .ogoj od o£Ã§Ãarud alep ¡Ãrecenamrep medro asse ,rap adac ed onrut oriemirp o etnarud adanimreted odis ahnet ogoj od medro a euq zev amU .savitsuaxe sadaredisnoc res meved o£Ãn seµÃ§Ãatneiro satsE .soriecrap mu ed zev ad lanif on revom es ed rarap otnop ed salob sad ritrap a aditimrep ©Ã soriecrap so ertne asrevnoc a ,salpud mE .8 alob an e ahlemrev alob ad egnol ragoj edop rodagoj o ,osep e ohnamat omsem od salob rasu ¡Ãreved rodagoj adaC :otnemidecorp etniuges o odasu res ¡Ãreved o£Ãtne, olavretni on osarta mu merigixe oienrot od uo o£Ã§Ãisop amun revitse atse es rapmil arap alob amu ratnavel etnet acnuN. amica odinifed omoc ,oicÃnier on atluser o£Ãn oizav od arbeug amU oizav od arbeug amU oizav od arbeug amU oizav od arbeug amu ratnavel etnet acnuN. amica odinifed omoc ,oicÃnier on atluser o£Ãn oizav od arbeug amu ratnavel etnet acnuN. a a§Ãemoc olavretni od ahlocse a ,)aidrat adagehc amu arap ominÃm oa oditnam ajes sordauq so ertne opmet o euq ed es-erugessA .)o£Ã§Ãaredisnoc ed rasicerp medop euq sotnop o£Ãs It is allowed to touch the table (rule K10). Players are usually advised to play groups once and then ask themselves directly for the player in control. The tangled ball must contact the foot pad at least once. A rest should be provided as part of the equipment at home. 10.3 Touching the table (rule k10) If a player touches the table in appreciation or frustration of a good shot and it is obvious that the opponent of the players is about to lose control of the table, that is, the balls are almost at rest and nothing will be pocketed, a fault should not be called. Exception, if it is absolutely clear a moving ball would have hit the ball that fell, the fallen ball is replaced also all other balls are restored to positions before the shot was played. In some circumstances, the referee may choose to ask for advice on the position of the balls, but the final decision must lie with the referee. Most occasions will allow an arbitrator to change position after each shot. This includes the smash shot. An arbitrator to change position after each shot. This includes the smash shot. An arbitrator to change position after each shot. This includes the smash shot. An arbitrator should always know at what time it is necessary for the "Start of Day" briefing. It is not a fault for a player to use the suggestion to reposition the cue ball in Baulk when the suggestion ball is in his hand. (It is a good idea to remove the discount ball before announcing the decision, thus preventing unnecessary questioning of the suggestion ball during such a maneuver, a standard foul will be called, for not executing a legal shot. M5: deliberately causing any ball or balls to be moved in a different way than that which may result from playing a normal shot. 18.4 Preparing a table brush the pads in the direction of the legal rule of shooting If a ball hit a cushion), the back of the pocket will count as a cushion. And if players violate the automatic loss lag rules, or if the referee cannot determine which ball is closest, the lag is a draw and is repeated. M7: Deliberately interfering, by word or action, in order to disturb an opponent's game was guilty of a serious foul, now it's Frame Loss. This also applies to an open table, where both sets of colored object balls are linked. The arbitrator must know the score sheet system in use and be able to explain to competitors as needed. Players have 30 seconds, from the 30-second indication, to fire their shot. The call, if awarded, should be "Total Snooker," to make it clear that a total of snooker has been awarded. In this guideline, extracts from the rules of the World Eight Balls Federation are in italics. The arbitrator may, where appropriate, issue warnings, summon a Senior Arbitrator may, where appropriate frame (caused by a standoff or an accidental shot out of turn) will be repeated with the player who made the legal break on that frame, breaking again. Some Tournament Directors will have additional rules that complement the World Eight Ball Playing rules (examples being slow play, break determination, dress code). Remember, if you're late for three of a break, it's your colleagues who suffer. The player whose ball is closest to the innermost edge of the baulk pad wins the lag. If an arbitrator on the board, the call must be cancelled. A cigarette placed behind the ear would constitute missing if it enters the space above the desk. Know which tables are in the allocated zone and cover all allocated tables. Do not be afraid to admit mistakes and correct them: For player A has two visits, and Referee forgets to call aSecond Second at the end of the first visit. For example, a start on its allocated record might be progressing slowly and a adjacent table might be spare. In this situation, the player should have waited for the Referee to confirm the nomination by pointing to the named ball. If this is not the case and the Referee feels that the player who played second wanted to take advantage of this, then the LAG must be read in conjunction with w.e.p.f. Rules and e.p.r.a. Call procedure. If a player has received a snooker, and the player catches the ball, there is a standard foul (see K21: The Referee must retrieve the ball). In the event that any guidance contained here conflicts with the instructions of the Senior Referee shall take precedence µ. It may be necessary to move, particularly if 60 seconds is approaching and the view is obstructed by the player in control or the senior Referee of the situation and their decision off the table, before returning to table. Any subsequent falling ball, no matter 1/4 near time, is treated as falling without being hit, and will be substituted where it went before the fall. Keep Senior arbitrator (or organizer) informed at all times of unusual events that may develop. This includes being able to place the cue ball in the hand of a pocket (but not touching a ball â â âTMa The exception to this is when a frame is re-racked because of an empty pause.
